Camp No. 268/38.

Station Mangalore, Dated the 5th October 1938.

From (Name) Sri Rao Bahadur M. V. Vellodi, B.A.,
(Designation) Collector of South Kanara,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
DEVELOPMENT Department.

Sir,

I wish to know whether Government would allow Collectors to co-opt one or two members more for the Periodical Conference. So far as my district is concerned, two of the members of the Legislative Assembly are Parlimentary Secretaries. Of the other members, Sri Venkatarao Baliga is at present the Chairman of the Municipal Council, Mangalore. He is also a very busy legal practitioner. Sri Karanth does not appear to take much interest. Messrs Schamnad and Hussain restrict their suggestions to the vicinity of their native places, Sri K. Ishwara is clearly barren of ideas, and Mr. Jerome A. Saldanha's interests are usually of a diffused nature and more often spectacular than useful. ~~Secondly~~ Consequently, the proceedings of these meetings are rather languishing. I have no intention at all to introduce politics into this matter. There are people who take a genuine interest in rural reconstruction, and I am anxious to obtain their co-operation. I am sanguine of making them attend the Periodical Conference without their asking for travelling allowance. Such, a one, for example, is Sri Molahalli Shiva Rao. He is a regular live wire, a great public worker, the President of the Land Mortgage Bank, Puttur, and one greatly interested in every form of public activity. He was a member of the defunct District Economic Council, and his services were extremely useful for the Council. I can get one or two others also.

Co-opting of more members - Permission.

From the Collector of South Canara,
No. 368/38, dated 5-10-38.

To Asst. Secy., Under

Please see the letter from the Collector of South Cana at pages 1-2 c.f. The following members of the Legislature are the non-official members of the South Canara District Periodical Conference:-

1. Sri. K. Isvara,
2. " A. Balakrishna Shetty, x Parliamentary Secy. to H.M. (P.W.)
3. " K.R. Karant,
4. " Bantwal Venkataraya Baliga,
5. " I. Saldhana
6. Mr. D.M. Hegde,
7. Khan Bahadur Md. Schamnad Sahib,
8. Hajee Saved Hussain Sahib,
9. Sri C.J. Varkey x Parliamentary Secy. to H.M.(Ed.)

For the reasons given in his letter the Collector of South Canara considers that they serve no useful purpose. He therefore suggests that more useful persons who take a genuine interest in rural reconstructio may be co-opted with a view to making the Periodical Conference serve the purpose for which they are intended. He has in view Sri. M. Shiva Rao, the President of the Land Mortgage Bank, Puttur, and ex-member of the District Economic Council, S. Canara as one suitable for the purpose. The Collector has also added that no extra expenditure will be involved as the members he has in view will themselves meet th travelling xkks and other incidental expenses for attending the Conferences. In as much as the Collecto proposes to co-opt only two or three really capable persons, their addition is not in any way likely to make the Conference unwieldy. In the circumstances it is for orders whether the Collector's proposal in South Canara will be accepted as a special case or whether the powe may be extended generally to all Collectors.

14x. 20/10/38

It is not possible to accept the suggestion of the Collector. We should bring to the notice which we would be reminded by abolishing the Economic Council.

17/10/38

Collector is anxious in doing their best for rural reconstruction. The Collector S. Canara considers that his advisory Council needs strengthening by the addition of a few people who do take interest, real & effective, in rural welfare work. He suggests that he be permitted to co-opt certain individuals. It also says that this will not mean additional expenditure. I think we should accept the Collector's proposal & reply so in view of orders recently issued in the case of Salem. Both the (Agri & RD) and PWD are agreed to the inclusion of the President of the Co-op Central Bank Salem among the invitees to the Periodical Conference.
